President and Consultant Ludovic Zanker congratulates the new US President, Donald Trump, on his inauguration to the White House on January 20, 2025. He will be the 47th President of the United States.

President and Consultant Ludovic Zanker congratulates the new US President, Donald Trump, at the White House.

He wishes him the best of luck in implementing his program and campaign promises, which a majority of Americans voted for him.

Ludovic Zanker is counting on President Donald Trump to finally start negotiations and a ceasefire in the conflict in Ukraine. He hopes that President Trump will start talks and meet with President Putin as soon as possible. This conflict must end.

Ludovic Zanker wishes President Donald Trump and his entire administration success and courage during his term. Europe must also understand that it cannot have the last word if it does not make efforts towards its great ally, the United States.
